

TWENTY MEN DIED IN A GLUCOSE FIRE.

C. J. HAMLIN'S BIG BUFFALO
FACTORY IN RUINS.

Less Than Fifteen Minutes Elapsed
From the Time the Fire Started to the Complete Engulfing of the Building—Men Had No Chance To Get Free.

BUFFALO, April 13.—The full extent of the loss of life in the glucose factory fire is not yet known, though the dead are known to be at least twenty. The financial loss is six hundred thousand dollars. The plant was situated on the Hamburg canal, Scott, East and West Market, and Perry streets. There were four immense buildings of brick, ranging in height from eight to eleven stories. The fire started in the main building, which was used for making the glucose. The buildings burned were the power and feed house, the refinery, and the storehouse. The Buffalo City fish market was also burned.

Day and night shifts were working and the night shift had just gone to work at 7 o'clock when the engineer saw fire coming out of the dynamo room. The works were running at full capacity, and there were 125 men in the building. In fifteen minutes the entire interior was in flames.

The building was full of inflammable materials, acids and the like used in the making of glucose and starch, and the fire spread from top to bottom in a few minutes. The men may have been able to get out, but it is more than likely that some of them at least were burned. Before 7:30 o'clock the main building was gone. The walls fell in on the canal side, and the fire reached across Scott street and communicated with the feed house. Every engine in the city was at work, but the water had no effect on the flames unless it was to make them hotter. Then the feed house, began to burn, but it did not go so rapidly.

In the meantime the Buffalo Fish market caught fire. Five firemen from engine No. 1 were sent in to fight the flames from the inside. No one noticed how rapidly the roof was burning, and just before 8 o'clock the roof fell in and buried the firemen. Three of them escaped unhurt, but Joseph Webber was not so fortunate. He was taken out unconscious, with his face terribly burned, some of his ribs broken, and his right side and shoulder burned, together with some severe internal injuries. Lieut. Louis H. Schraeder had his back and sides severely hurt.

From this time no further effort was made to save the glucose works, but the firemen directed all their streams on the surrounding buildings. The feed house soon fell in, and the refinery and storehouse followed.

LAN FOR INTER-STATE BANKS.
Circulation To Be Based on Any Approved Public Bond.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—Representative Sperry, a member of the committee on banking and currency, introduced a currency bill yesterday to establish a bureau of inter-state banks. The bill authorizes a bank to deposit with the treasury of the United States as security of circulation "any interest bearing bonds issued under due authority of law by the United States, or any state of the United States, or by any country, or by any municipal corporation located within any such state." A bank having an authorized capital stock not exceeding $150,000 shall deposit bonds of par value of not less than one-fourth of the capital stock, and larger banks shall deposit not less than $50,000. The United States does not guarantee the circulating notes, but holds the bonds as collateral security. The notes shall constitute a paramount lien upon all the assets. The provisions require redemption in legal tender United States coin on the presentation of the notes, and also require a reserve of 25 per cent of deposits. A central redemption agency is established in the office of the controller of the currency and the banks are required to keep there 5 per cent of their outstanding circulation in coin. Mr. Sperry makes no provision for a safety fund. No distinction is made in the money of redemption between gold and silver coin, but there is a separate section of the bill authorizing the establishment of gold banks which deposit bonds payable, principal and interest, in gold, and make their notes redeemable exclusively in gold.

Will Aid a Tariff Vote.
WASHINGTON, April 13.—There will not be any republican filibustering against the tariff bill. A conference of republican senators was held with Messrs. Allison and Aldrich of the finance committee yesterday afternoon. It was then decided that there should be no delay to going ahead with the schedule as soon as a few senators who have speeches to deliver have been heard.

Mr. Peffer delivered the third installment of his speech on the bill. He announced his purpose of offering at the proper time a substitute for the pending bill based on the principle of taxing the articles used by the rich while exempting those articles of prime necessity used by the poor, whether manufactured abroad or not. He would relieve the poor of all taxation and put the tax on articles used by the rich, so that the burdens of tariff taxation would rest entirely on those who were best able to bear it.

At 5 o'clock Mr. Peffer had not finished his remarks, and according to agreement the tariff bill was laid aside and the urgent deficiency bill was taken up.

No Quorum in the House.
WASHINGTON, April 13.—In the house yesterday as soon as the journal had been read the usual filibustering commenced. Roll call followed roll call in quick succession, but no quorum was developed, the republicans refusing to vote. Finally Mr. Richardson in the chair directed the clerk to read the resolution revoking all leaves of absence except on account of sickness, and directing the sergeant-at-arms to request the attendance of some absentees by telegraph.

Mr. Catchings moved to lay on the table, pending which there was a motion to adjourn, which was lost, 157 to 27, and the motion to lay the appeal on the table was carried, 144 to 24. Another motion to adjourn was lost, 94 to 146, and Mr. Reed attempted to enter motions to dispense with further proceedings under the call, but the speaker ruled them out of order and the vote was then taken on the demand for the previous question on the resolution to revoke leaves of absence and telegraph for absentees, and it was ordered, 132 to 3. Mr. Reed's point of no quorum was overruled and a motion to adjourn lost. The resolution was then adopted without a division and at 6:30 the house adjourned.

TRACK OF THE STORM.
Many Lives Known to Have Been Lost on the Atlantic Coast.

NEW YORK, April 13.—The storm which began to level things along the Atlantic coast Tuesday night is gradually losing its cyclonic nature. In this city and on the direct coast line the fury of the storm was spent by dawn yesterday, but in the wake of the cyclone, which is slowing passing out to sea, the weather continues sufficiently rough to cause well-founded apprehensions for any unfortunate vessel which may be in its track. It will be days before the full extent of the loss of life and property can be determined. Perhaps the fate of some of the smaller craft, which were off the coast during the height of the gale, will never be known. Certain it is, from the meager number of arrivals at this port since the storm began, that a fleet of sailing craft has been driven out to sea or forced to fly before the tempest under bare poles and to be tossed about at the mercy of the waves. All that is known now is that two more vessels, in addition to the two which were wrecked yesterday, have been reported cast up on the coast and that more lives have probably been crushed out during the night.

Senator Peffer Favors Strikes.
WASHINGTON, April 13.—Senator Peffer, in his tariff speech to-day, advised the laboring people to strike and continue to strike till they obtained their share of the profits which manufacturers make through the introduction and use of labor-saving machinery. This is the only way, he said, by which they can obtain their rights.

NEW YORK, April 13.—David Dudley Field died suddenly at his home, 2 Gramercy Place this morning of pneumonia. He returned from Europe Wednesday in good health and was taken sick Wednesday night. Although eighty-nine years old he held to youthful vigor with all the tenacity that marked the other Field brothers, Stephen J., Cyrus W., and James D. For a year he had been devoting himself to writing biography. He was born February 13, 1805, eighty-nine years ago to-day.

DAVID DUDLEY FIELD, being the oldest son of a then famous David Dudley Field, clergyman and author, and the oldest of four famous brothers. In 1825 the young man was graduated from Williams college, and in 1839 he published his first essay on the necessity of reforming and simplifying the laws. That has been his life work, to which he has devoted nearly fifty years of toil. His travels and political sketches are secondary to his work as a jurist, and his codes are studied throughout the civilized world. In 1828 he was elected in New York city.

BRECKENRIDGE ON THE GRIDDLE.
Gray Haired Colonel Gets a Final Toasting From Judge Wilson.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—Judge Wilson occupied the day in the Breckenridge case by an arraignment of the gray-haired colonel. Butterworth closed yesterday afternoon. In addition to reading the Rhodes letters. In addition to reading the letters Mr. Butterworth consumed much time thrashing over the testimony of Miss Pollard from the record and pointing out discrepancies on minor points.

Then Mr. Butterworth portrayed the opportunities to elevate herself in Washington which Miss Pollard had before her if she only had been minded to embrace them; how she should have shrunk from continuing a life of shame with a man with wife and family. He argued that a verdict against his client in this case would be only a flagrant instance of vicarious punishment. He went on to say how horribly revolting was her story that he had taken her to a house for two hours to convey to her the tender message that she was to follow in the footsteps of that wife. It implied that a woman of corrupt life from choice, who had held doubtful relations with Rhodes, who had illegitimate children at sundry and divers places, was to sit at his table in a union that was the acme of all that was vicious and contemptible. That woman, who had lived ten years without earning a cent, wanted money and nothing else. Mr. Butterworth firmly believed that the woman knew of that secret marriage in New York on the 29th of April.

At 3 o'clock Major Butterworth finished. There was some consultation among the attorneys and then Mr. Wilson, stating that he was hoarse, asked the court to adjourn. The crowd dispersed and several gentlemen pressed forward to congratulate Mr. Butterworth.

NEW ALBANY, Ind., April 13.—The New Albany presbytery, which has just adjourned, took action in the Breckenridge-Pollard scandal and adopted resolutions to be presented at the general assembly, which meets at Saratoga next May, asking that men of dissolute and immoral habits be excluded from the national councils.

WON'T KEEP THE JOB GROVER GAVE HIM.

C. H. JACOBI, OF WATERTOWN WILL RESIGN.

He Doesn't Care To Be Banished, and Says the Man Who Takes a Consulship Is Wrong in the Head, as It Is Nothing But a Living Grave—Wishes He Hadn't Gone.

JEFFERSON, April 13.—C. H. Jacobi who went from Watertown to accept a consulship at Reichenberg will resign at once, thus overturning all traditions concerning office-holders. He writes:

"I should have been kicked all over Watertown when I accepted the invitation to go to Reichenberg, and did not stick to get what I wanted or take nothing at all. I shall not stay here, and my resignation in a very short time will go to Washington. I don't care to be banished. I want to live among people that are people, and do not care to waste my life here. Take my advice: Do not accept any consulship. A consul is a slave. Besides there is no money in it. If you want to travel go as a free man. Then you can go over the country in all directions as you desire, but to come out here to be nailed down in one place is the next thing to death."

CHICAGO LOCK-OUT GROWS.
Another Installment of Men Left Without Work To-Day.

CHICAGO, April 13.—The lock-out is growing, but not as fast as the bosses promised. Exact figures are difficult to obtain for the reason that the bosses have adopted the policy of refusing to give information and the reports made by the men may underestimate the situation. The best figures obtainable show that something like 10,000 men were locked out yesterday. The men's figures place the number at only 382. On the showing of their own figures the men are jubilant and proclaim that the lock-out is an utter failure. The bosses, on the other hand, say that the lock-out is already a success and that it will grow daily. There is vague talk of a movement to bring about arbitration, but no names are given.

Attorney Geeting, who has been retained by the men, said last night: "We will bring no conspiracy prosecution against the bosses at this time, but after the trouble is over the men who have been thrown out of work by the lock-out may sue for damages and recover for the wages they have lost from this uncalculated lock-out."

The striking painters secured to their wage schedule yesterday the signatures of sixteen men who gave employment to forty-three men.

EVERY MINER WILL STOP WORK
President of the American Union Sure His Men Are True.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, April 13.—President John C. McBride of the United Mine Workers of America says there is no reason to doubt but that every member of the miners' union would be bound by the edict of the convention. He said that beyond the membership of the union thousands of miners in Maryland, Michigan and other states where there was no state organization the men would strike from sympathy, and the executive board already had assurances to that effect. The operators in the Hocking Valley began a double force in the mines to-day in order to get out as much coal as possible before the 21st.

The first business before the convention yesterday was the election of an executive board. The following were chosen: Cameron Miller and John Fahy, Ohio; W. B. Wilson and T. A. Bradley, Pennsylvania; W. C. Webb, Kentucky; and J. A. Crawford, Illinois. The report of the scale committee recommended that when the strike should be inaugurated the purpose should be to restore the old scale in existence at the beginning of the present year. That is to say, Ohio miners will demand 70 cents a ton, Indiana 70 cents, Illinois miners 50 to 60 cents, and Pennsylvania miners, Pittsburg district, 70 cents. The report of the committee was unanimously adopted. John McBride introduced a resolution pledging the miners to obey the law during the forthcoming strike, to commit no depredations, and if necessary to assist in protecting property. The resolution was received with cheers and adopted.

JENKINS WANTS ANOTHER SHOW.
Says the Appeal From His Rules Should Go to the Appellate Court.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 13.—There is a difference of opinion between the representatives of the labor organizations and Judge Jenkins as to what court an appeal should be taken from his decision on the injunction order. The fact that Judge Jenkins and Judge Caldwell are so much at variance, and that both are members of different Appellate courts, will have a tendency to throw these cases into the Supreme court. If this is not done there may be two conflicting final determinations, entirely inconsistent and contradictory.

RIOTING AT DUNBAR TODAY
Pennsylvania Troops Called Out To Suppress the Mob.

HARRISBURG, April 13.—A call was received by the executive department from Dunbar today, for troops to suppress coke riots. This was a surprise as the trouble there was thought to be over. Yesterday a mob of 500 strikers assembled at Dunbar before daylight with the avowed intention of forcing the workmen out at the Hill Farm works, but the show of force made by the deputies frightened the strikers off and they left for re-enforcements, moving in the direction of Mount Braddock. It was given out by some of the strikers that they would return to Hill Farm and attack the deputies and men at work as soon as they could augment their force to 800 or 1,000 by men from Trotter and Mount Braddock.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., April 13.—It is predicted that the strike in the coke regions will be declared off within the next few days. Trial of the Bank Wreckers.
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 13.—In the trial of the Coffins yesterday receiving Teller Robinson continued to occupy the stand and is not yet through. It is estimated now the trial will last a month. The books introduced yesterday showed that for nearly three months prior to the failure the cabinet company's account at the bank was overdrawn in amounts ranging from $40,000 to $65,000. The books of the cabinet company, also introduced, showed that the branch companies owed nothing to the cabinet company to be drawn against.

Meyer Poisoning Case Resumed.
NEW YORK, April 13.—The trial of Dr. Henry C. F. Meyer, charged with poisoning Ludwig Brandt in order to secure insurance money, which Dec. 18 last was interrupted near its conclusion by the sudden insanity of the juror Alex B. Low, was begun again yesterday before Recorder Smythe in part II, general sessions. According to counsel for the defense, more than a week will probably be consumed in getting a jury.

The complaint this time alleges that Parsons abstracted from the vault railroad bonds payable to bearer to the value of $463,000. It is rumored that new and even more startling developments will soon be given out.

Not an Anarchist Bomb.
PARIS, April 13.—An investigation into the explosion of the bomb in front of the house of a justice of the peace at Argenteuil shows that it was not the work of anarchists, as at first supposed, but was the result of a stupid practical joke upon the part of the justice's son.

Within a few days Judge Jenkins will enter an order continuing in force the injunctions, as modified by him, and then the formal steps necessary to carry the case to the upper court will be taken. The hearing will be in Chicago.

The Wisconsin Central road will follow the example of the Chicago & Northwestern and will, if the trouble with the dock laborers at Ashland continues, refuse to carry any ore to that port this year.

STRIKE ON THE GREAT NORTHERN.
Contradictory Stories of the Great Labor Movement Set for To-day.

HELENA, Mont., April 13.—Unless orders to the contrary are received before noon to-day it is believed here that all of the Great Northern trainmen between Larimore and Spokane will quit their post and the road will be tied up tight. The men demand the continuance of the scale under which they are working now.

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 13.—It is said here that at noon the men on the Great Northern railroad will strike from one end to the other, tying up the road, except mail cars. This story has been thoroughly investigated here but can not be substantiated.

TORONTO, Ont., April 13.—A dispatch from Montreal saying that a cable had been received from Sir Henry Tyler ordering a 10 per cent reduction in the wages of all employees on the Grand Trunk railway has caused consternation in the ranks of the men here. If the order be enforced it is not unlikely that a repetition of the strike of 1876 will take place. The grievance committee of the federation branches is now in session discussing the situation.

ALLIANCE OF PRESBYTERIANS.
Home Missions the Topic Discussed by the Federation Committee.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., April 13.—The American section of the Commission of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches Throughout the World Holding the Presbyterian System met in the rooms of the Presbyterian Historical society yesterday. Previous to the meeting of the alliance there was a conference of the committees on the proposition for the federation of the various Presbyterian churches.

Did Not Intend to Kill Geer.
JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., April 13.—The colored murderers of Stephen Geer were given a preliminary hearing before Mayor Robinson yesterday. Pickering stated that he was merely stealing chickens and fired in the direction of the noise made by the opening of the door and did not see the man or know he had shot him until he heard him cry. Reed denied all connection with the crime, contrary to his confession when first arrested, and tried to put all the blame on Pickering. They were both held over to the Circuit court without bail.

EVANSTON, Wyo., April 13.—Gen. Kelly's army of the commonweal, which had camped on the plains of Utah, eight miles out of Ogden, broke camp last midnight and captured a Union Pacific freight train made up of box cars en route to the mines. Gen. Kelly at once assumed command of the train. The engineer and fireman obeyed his orders. There has been no violence of any kind. The army ought to reach Cheyenne to-night.

CORNER STONE LAID FOR Y. M. C. A. HOME

EVERY BUSINESS PLACE IN TOWN CLOSED.

Ceremonies at the Site of the Building Attract an Immense Throng—L. W. Messer, of Chicago, Makes the Principal Address—How the Membership Now Stands.

The vision of a handsome Y. M. C. A. building rises up before the throng who gather at the corner of Milwaukee and High streets this afternoon. On the broad foundation there laid has been built a platform and here the ceremony of laying the corner stone began at 4 o'clock. It is a ceremony that crowns two years of work. Hard work, faithful work, earnest work it has been but its reward is ample.

L. W. Messer, general secretary of the Chicago Young Men's Christian Association, and John M. Whitehead, of this city, made the addresses to-day. Orchestral accompaniment is provided for the singing, a male quartette leading. The programme is as follows:

Singing.....Onward Christian Soldiers
Prayer.....Edward Reger
Singing.....America
Address.....L. W. Messer
Laying the Stone.....President E. E. Loomis
Address.....J. M. Whitehead
Singing.....Doxology

Every business place in the city closes this afternoon from 4 to 5 o'clock as a mark of interest in the association.

The organization of the Janesville Young Men's Christian Association grew out of a district convention held here in January 1892. It was hoped that the convention might arouse interest and the hope was justified. Immediately following the convention twenty young men met and determined to organize.

A canvass for funds for the building was started at once, and as a result, during that spring and summer nine thousand dollars was secured toward the building.

A permanent organization was effected on February 25, 1893, and upon the 4th day of March, '92, the same was incorporated under the laws of the state of Wisconsin. In the fall of '92 the board of directors purchased from the Doe estate the lot on which their foundation now stands and at once began to make plans for the new building. The spring and summer of '93 was used in perfecting these plans and securing bids on the same, but in the fall the contract for the excavation and foundation was let and the same completed, but not in time to allow for this work that fall. However the contracts were let and now that spring has opened up the work will be pushed with all speed, and ere another winter Janesville will be able to boast of as fine a Y. M. C. A. building as any in the Northwest.

The first president of the association was R. F. Danwiddie, who was followed by J. M. Whitehead. The present officers and directors of the association are:

President—E. E. Loomis.
Vice President—B. F. Danwiddie.
Cor. Secretary—H. J. Cunningham.

Directors—W. G. Palmer, W. S. Jeffries, W. E. Clinton, W. J. Cannon, M. H. Soverhill, C. H. Kueck, H. M. Hanson, J. V. Norcross.

WILL NOT CHANGE RATES YET
Wisconsin Telephone Company Rescinds the Extra Call Circular.

The circular letter sent to all of the subscribers of the Wisconsin Telephone company, notifying them that a charge of 2 cents for each call in excess of 1,000 a year would be made, has been rescinded. Henry C. Payne, president of the company, accomplished this yesterday by a counter declaration. The reason for recalling the circular issued by General Manager McLeod was the great opposition it was met with by the subscribers. Some other plan to accomplish the same thing will be sought. What the company wishes to accomplish in changing rates is not to charge the subscriber whose phone is used 2,000 times a year as much as is charged the subscriber whose telephone averages 20,000 calls a year.

WHAT COUNTY FOLK ARE TALKING ABOUT.

MILTON STANDS BY GRAVELED ROADS.

The Only Question Is How They Shall Be Built—Three or Four Crops of Tobacco Sold at Two and One-Half Cents Without Fillers—Men's Oratorical Contest.

MILTON, Wis., April 12.—The writer in the item on the gravel tax and its promoter, Ezra Goodrich, was merely voicing the opinion freely expressed by many of those who voted against the proposition, that while they are heartily in favor of graveling the highways, they are opposed to the manner of doing the same, as proposed by Goodrich. His proposition, like its predecessors, from the same source, was much like the discharge of a shot gun, in that it was so scattered as to be of little practical benefit to the highways. It also included an appropriation for the "Cutting Hill," which is located in the town of Harmony, despite the fact that the present board of supervisors recommended that an appropriation for that purpose, then in the treasury, be diverted to other purposes, as in their judgment the ex-

LIMA FELT THE STORM.

Monday and Tuesday Worse Than Winter Days—Church to Be Decorated.

LIMA, April 13.—The worst storm this spring visited this place last Monday and Tuesday. The fair and social of the United Brethren church, held last Wednesday evening, was a success financially. They netted twenty-five dollars to the society. The ladies of the M. E. Aid society are making arrangements to paper and beautify their church, in the near future. Until further notice, the services of the United Brethren church, will be held in the afternoon. Sabbath school at 2 o'clock and preaching services at 3 p. m. Mr. Warlock, has moved into H. Bullocks' house, and will run Mr. Bullocks' cheese factory this morning. Miss Jessie Bowers, who is teaching in Madison, spent her vacation at home and returned to her school last Saturday.

NEWS FROM NORTH JOHNSTOWN.

Eugene Cary Elected to Fill the Late A. Johnson's Place.

NORTH JOHNSTOWN, April 13.—At the covenant meeting last Saturday, Eugene Cary was elected deacon to fill the place of his uncle, A. Johnson, lately deceased. Mrs. Harry Walker visited Lima friends last Tuesday, returning home the next day. The R. C. F. meeting last Sunday evening led by Miss Kittie Walker, was a success, and those who did not attend, lost much by not availing themselves of such helps in their church work. Mrs. Holt, who has been sick all winter, does not improve as fast as her many friends would wish. H. L. Jones, of Lima, intends papering the parsonage this week. All were well pleased with the entertainment at the Ladies' Aid Society last Thursday evening, and quite a sum was added to the funds of the society. School commenced in the Palmer district last Monday, with Ella Stewart, teacher.

Jottings From Center.

CENTER, April 13.—Mrs. Grace Cowden is expected here from Tennessee soon, and will spend the summer with her parents. Fred Vankirk has the lumber on the ground for enlarging his store and will soon be pushing the carpentering. Fred Snyder and wife spent Sunday with Mrs. Snyder's parents, at Footville. Jessie Rettig has the erysipelas quite badly. Levi Canniff and wife spent Sunday at Pat Torpy's. Frank Sayles, of Evansville, has the creamery at Leyden on rollers and is slowly wending his way toward his destination, six miles distant. Charles Weaver and Allie Cleave, of Magnolia, attended services here Sunday. Ezra Wright is suffering a severe attack of rheumatism. William Johnson and lady Sundayed at Frank Dean's, in Hanover. Henry Affel is troubled with his old difficulty.

Coming Lecture at Footville.

FOOTVILLE, April 13.—There will be a lecture Sunday evening at the M. E. church by Mrs. Dams, of Evansville. All are invited. The teachers' meeting last week was a decided success, being largely attended. The sessions proved to be very interesting to outsiders as well as to those engaged in the work, and the lecture by Dr. Stearns on Friday evening was enjoyed by a good sized audience. It is hoped we may enjoy these privileges often. The silver medal contest takes place Tuesday night in the hall. Good music will be furnished by the Footville Temple Quartette with Miss Maud Wells at the organ, which of itself is enough to draw a crowded house. H. A. Egerton is spending the week at the capital city. Fred Wallihan was suddenly called to Plymouth by the illness of a friend.

Notes From Magnolia.

MAGNOLIA, April 13.—Mite society meets at Wallace Anderson's next Thursday. All invited. School in Cainville commenced last Monday with Miss Jaynes as teacher. Wilson Brown delivered his tobacco last Thursday to Mr. Dodge of Albany for 3 cents. Nito Brown is at home again. Ella Howard of Albany, is visiting relatives here. Mrs. Hunkerford who is suffering from cancer is very low. Young people's meeting Sunday the 15, at the Advent church with Miss Birma Worthing as leader.

It will astonish you how quick Johnson's Magic Oil will kill all pain. Sold at Smith's pharmacy; 25 and 50 cents.

Within the next year the company will greatly improve its system. Plans are being made whereby private telephone can be maintained for from $3 to $10 a year. Club lines, which connect not less than five individuals at a cost of $10 a year, are also to be arranged. The company also proposes to put in speaking tube lines at a rental of $3 a year, to be used in residences, business houses and hotels will be so arranged that persons in one room will be enabled to talk with persons in any other room.

A Baking Powder to Avoid.

The housekeeper will do well to keep her eye upon the schemes designed to force upon her fraudulent and dangerous baking powders. The latest is the canvasser for one of the inferior powders, who solicits orders for half pound boxes to be filled by the grocer to whom he turns them over at twenty-five cents each, of which fifteen cents is to be paid in cash and the balance in a ten-cent rebate check which the solicitor leaves with the consumer. The object of the scheme is to make the housekeeper think she is getting twenty-five cents worth of baking powder for fifteen cents.

The inferiority of such baking powder is clearly shown by the fact that the manufacturer can sell it for twenty cents a pound below the price of the standard brands. A baking powder that can be sold at these rates should be avoided, as the materials alone required for a pound of pure and wholesome powder cost twice as much. A recent investigation by the government shows that a half pound of alum baking powder costs about one and a half cents. These are the powders that are sold by such schemes as those described. Alum baking powders are rank poison to many constitutions, but if people wish to buy them, they should not pay over five cents a pound for them and then they would yield a profit of 100 per cent over cost to their manufacturers.

GOLD WATCH FOR A MUSICAL GIRL.

EDITORS GAZETTE:—Seeing the merchants propose to push the fair this year, I will do my share by this offer as agent for the Colby piano:

Adjourned Meeting.

The meeting of Trinity parishioners adjourned from Monday last, will be held this evening after the regular service. The purpose of the meeting is the discussion of places for the new rectory.

penditure of money on said hill would be unwise and uncalled for. At the business meeting of the town on election day Goodrich moved to strike out that portion of the report of the board, but among the hundreds present there was no one to even second his motion, an evidence that the taxpayers did not agree with his "Cutting Hill" fad. That the clay and boulder roads constructed by Contractor Goodrich are not "a joy and comfort" to nine-tenths of the people interested there can be no question of doubt. His attempt to convince the reader that the writer is opposed to giving the farmers the benefits that the village people enjoy from gravel highways is too attenuated to deserve further notice. The farmers and tax payers of this township know too well what the antics of the "promoter" have cost them during the past thirty years and understand his object in masquerading as the "farmers friend." Professor Kumein's classes in botany, zoology and geology are larger this term and the members are much interested in their work. Rev. O. U. Whitford, secretary of the Seventh Day Baptist Missionary society, of Westley, R. I., shook hands with a few of his many Milton friends Tuesday afternoon. He came west to officiate at the funeral of Rev. N. Wardner and was obliged to return to his New England home at once. He expects to be present at the commencement exercises of the college next June. The new store is run by a shoe maker which gives us two cobbler shops in town. The ice storm this week damaged many shade trees. Early spring prophets are without honor in this or any other country. Frank A. Rood left Friday for Merrill to begin his labors in the drug business. Three or four growers in this locality have sold their '94 crops of tobacco at 2 1/2 cents and retain the fillers. They get democratic wages for their summers work. Oliver P. Paul, of Glen Valley South Dakota and Charles B. Hull of Chicago, shook hands with Milton acquaintances this week. Professor C. H. Crandall's mother arrived from the east Wednesday evening. Hereafter all pool and billiard tables in the village are to pay a license and close their places of business at 10 o'clock p. m. There was a full house at the Men's Oratorical Contest at the Methodist church Wednesday evening. The judges selected were Misses Jennie Dunn, Alice Doty and Belle Walker. At the appointed hour seven gentlemen were marched up the center aisle and took the front pew, ready for duty. The program was interspersed with good music and at the close the judges retired to make up their verdict. Frank H. Gifford received the prize, a fine copy of the Methodist Hymnal. W. A. Thompson stood second. All the numbers received hearty applause and the audience were greatly pleased with the entertainment.

LOOKING FOR FILTH.

Judge Bradley would have plenty to do in Janesville. This is what the judge said of the spectators in the Breckenridge case:

"This morbid curiosity which has been manifested since the beginning of this suit is perfectly disgusting. The court corridors have been crowded; the egress has been crowded, and I understand that the sidewalks in front of the offices of the counsel have been crowded, showing a prurient eagerness to see the parties to this suit. They seem to forget that some one besides the parties to the suit are on trial here. The spectators have been on trial for their decency and have been found guilty of indecent conduct. These men who come here day after day remind me of buzzards, sitting on a fence waiting for a sick horse to die; waiting for a pile of carrion."

There are many so-called good men in Janesville who are open to just such comment. They rush to the municipal court whenever there is an indecent trial and sit for hours to hear something they would not permit anyone to say in their homes. And they are not young men. In the main they are disgusting old buzzards who seek that kind of carrion. They can scent scandal clear across town and their tracks lead unerringly to a source of corruption.

NO USE FILLIBUSTERING.

There is neither credit nor profit for the republicans in delaying action on the tariff bill for the sake of delay. All that they should demand is that a reasonable time be devoted to the discussion of the measure. The country desires that the bill be disposed of after a fair share of deliberation, and it is to the republicans' interest to aid in the gratification of this wish. The uncertainty resulting from this tariff agitation is the only cloud now on the business horizon, and this will remain until final action of some sort is taken on the bill. The republican senators should understand at the outset that there is no chance to defeat the bill. In some shape or other the measure is likely to pass, and all the democrats are likely to vote for it in the end, no matter how loud the denunciations of some of them may be now for certain provisions in it. As there is no probability of killing the bill, therefore, the republicans cannot afford to needlessly or recklessly obstruct it.

Members of the Louisiana legislature, which meets next month are just now haughtier than aldermen. They will have to elect three United States senators—the first occurrence of its kind—one to fill the unexpired term of Justice White; one to fill the full term from March 4, 1895, to which Justice White had been elected, and one to fill the unexpired term of the late Senator Gibson, which ends March 3, 1897.

The six democrats who by some apparent oversight were elected to the Rhode Island legislature, will probably try to carry out the democratic ante-election programme of electing a senator from "little Rhode" to succeed Senator Dixon, whose term expires next March.

Senator Brice shows more respect for the silver sentiment of the country which he declares is constantly increasing, than Mr. Cleveland does. But Brice is a candidate for reelection and Mr. C., however much he might desire it, cannot be.

Senator Murphy's statement that the tariff bill will not be voted upon before next November, has worried the democrats quite as much as the set speech made by Senator Hill against the bill.

As if the democrats in congress were not always sufficiently divided upon the tariff and silver, a new division is apparent over the repeal of the tax on state bank currency.

Oh yes, the people of this country are just howling for free trade. If you don't believe it, just refer to recent elections.

The latest news from Hawaii says Lil is restless. That's exactly the predicament of her friends Grover and Gresham.

SOME WELL KNOWN FACES.

An Ambitious Colored Boy.

Georgia has a beneficent institution in the Atlanta university, which was established in 1869 by northern friends of the negro for the education of colored boys. Many of its pupils make great sacrifices for the sake of obtaining a collegiate training. One boy from Mississippi who was lately admitted walked all the way from Vicksburg to Atlanta, a distance of 560 miles, in order to get a chance to work for an education. The name of this ambitious colored youth is P. P. Lee. He was just a month upon the road. The story he told of his ambition gained him so many friends along the route that when he reached Atlanta he had 10 cents more in his pockets than when he started from Vicksburg.

Howard's Madness.

There Were a Good Four Inches Between Mose and the Bullet.

"It was while Stenwinder Johnson had the upper store at the Rosebud," said Colonel George Barry to a New York Sun man, "that Mose Howard was the chief government herder for the agency. I was stationed at Fort Niobrara in those days and occasionally got over to Rosebud at other times than issue days. Old Bill Huston, a sort of a retired cowboy, was hanging around the agency then, sometimes working as a herder, but for the most part picking up what he could as a hunter. He was the finest shot with a Winchester I ever saw, and thought nothing of taking off the head of a sage hen at 100 yards. He wouldn't pick up a jack rabbit that he'd hit anywhere else than in the head.

"Mose Howard and old Bill Huston were good friends. Mose used to say in his slow drawl: 'Old Bill ain't sech a h—l of a feller as he use' to be, but he's a humble citizen, an' that's me, every time.'

"One day, when I happened to be in Johnson's store, Mose came in more excited than I had ever seen him before. For a quarter of an hour he didn't say a word, but stood over by the big stove—it was a cold raw day in the fall—chewing tobacco and shooting tarantula juice in a way that showed violent perturbation of spirit.

"Say, Johnson," he drawled out, 'wha' d'ye think old Bill Huston done? Well, if he didn't come plum nigh to shooting me cold, I'm a goat. I was comin' up 'm the lower store 'nd was about half way across when a Winchester ball pinged right past my ear so close I could feel the wind from it. I looked around a bit an' over there on the creek, 'bout half a mile, was old Bill Huston pickin' up a sage hen. Sa-a-y, maybe you fellows b'lieve I wasn't hoss-tye."

"What did you do, Mose?" asked Johnson.

"I jess waltzed over there," answered Mose, "an' says I to Bill: 'What in thunder,' I says, 'air you a shootin' at?'"

"'Humph'" says Bill. "You darn fool, don't you s'pose I seen you? Moved around till you was plum four inches out o' range."

Taller Than the Steeple.

In London city, in Leadenhall street, there is a church bearing the strange name of St. Andrew Undershaft, a name that would not be intelligible to anyone without a knowledge of the history of the locality. It seems that some four hundred years ago, every May day a high shaft or pole was set up opposite the south door of St. Andrew's and adorned with flowers. So tall was the pole it was actually higher than the church steeple, which was therefore literally under the shaft. Now, there being several churches dedicated to St. Andrew, this one was further described as Undershaft to prevent it from being mistaken for any of the others. The old may-pole having been denounced as an idol by an over-zealous curate in the reign of the boy-king, the inhabitants of the district saved it in pieces for firewood. Thus it is that in the name of a still existing church is preserved an interesting bit of bygone history, which otherwise would probably have passed away for ever.

Business Is Business.

In the early days of George the Fourth's reign, a stock-broker of some eminence, one of the "chosen people," often transacted affairs with Rothschild; but on one occasion the business on the exchange which he had to transact was on so small a scale that he took it to a less famous house. Somehow or other, Rothschild heard that he had done so, and the next time they met rebuked him by asking why he had not come to him. "Oh, sir," replied the broker, "I thought a matter of eighteen pence too small to bring here."

"Ah, but bishness is bishness," returned the great man.—Argonaut.

DULUTH FLYER MAY RUN AGAIN

Railroad Changes Have Been Delayed by the Light Traffic

In spite of light traffic C. & N. W. men say there is talk of putting on the Duluth express again. It was taken off early in the winter.

"I thought passenger traffic, both east and west, is very limited," said Station Agent Potter this morning. "I don't remember when through passenger traffic was as light as it is now. Very few people are traveling. Local passenger traffic is very good considering the times, but no where near as heavy as it ought to be."

They are going to the theatre.

"Henry," she said, "are you not ready yet?"

"Pretty nearly, my dear," he replied.

"I wish you were not so slow. You are the slowest thing in existence."

"No," he said, thoughtfully, as he gazed at a passing Metropolitan street car. "There's one thing that is slower than I am. It may sound paradoxical, but it's true."

"What do you mean?"

"Rapid transit."

FLED WITH A THIEF, SO NOW SHE WEEPS

FAIR MARY M'GINNIS' CHECK- ERED WEDDING TRIP.

Her Husband, Henry O'Neil, Was Married in Stolen Clothes, Robbed a Former Sweetheart of the Wedding Ring and Drove a Stolen Horse with Stolen Mittens.

There were elements in Henry O'Neil's wedding trip that few wedding trips embody. It began in theft, for he was married in some stolen clothes; gave the girl a stolen ring; drove a stolen horse with stolen mittens, and was finally landed in jail. His victims ranged from a confiding Rockford liveryman to his own brother, whose clothes he took; jumped from him to his bride's brother, whose mittens he wore and from him back to a former sweetheart from whom he got the wedding ring. It was fair Mary McGinnis that the wily Henry married. The couple started from Rockford with the livery horse, Saturday morning at 3 o'clock, and drove down to Freeport. From Freeport they journeyed to Beloit, where O'Neil says he married Miss McGinnis. Between Beloit and Monroe a cruel gust of wind whirled the marriage certificate from fair Mary's hand as she was examining it and now it cannot be found.

Officer Was After Them. While they were thus enjoying themselves the Rockford police were searching for the rig. They had one Janesville man on the force and as he was of course one of the finest to be had they gave him the case. He was Frank Bargreen, the former proprietor of the Seaside restaurant. Bargreen got to the house of O'Neil's uncle near Monroe before O'Neil and his bride did, so when O'Neil came his aunt told him to hide. The loving couple drove two miles up the road hitched their horse in front of a farm house at three o'clock in the afternoon and at five the next morning the farmer who saw Mr. and Mrs. O'Neil strike out across the field on foot, got the horse and drove it into Monroe. O'Neil passed through Janesville in Officer Bargreen's charge this morning while Mrs. O'Neil was taken back home by the liveryman who drove up to identify the stolen horse. Besides the horse transaction there is a warrant against O'Neil for stealing the wedding ring.

ROAD TAX SYSTEM NOT CHANGED

Whether Farmers Pay in Labor or Cash It is all the Same.

Many farmers labor under the impression that by voting at the last town meeting to pay the road taxes in labor, it means a return to the old system. This is wrong. The new law is still in force, and the same supervision over the roads is maintained as last year. The only difference is, that instead of paying the taxes in cash they will be privileged to work out the amount under the direction of the road superintendent and the town board.

ELLEN SHAFER IN THE COURT.

Orfordville Liquor Case at Last before Judge Phelps.

Orfordville people filled the municipal court to-day, the occasion being the trial of Mrs. Ellen Shafer, of that village, for selling liquor without a license. A jury was drawn in the case at 10 o'clock this morning. A number of witnesses are to be examined on both sides, and probably a decision will not be reached until late in the evening.

Not For Sale at the Laboratory.

The Dr. McChesney Medicine Company are having calls at their laboratory every day for their popular medicines. They desire to say to Janesville people that their goods may be found at every drugstore in the city, and that under no conditions will they be retailed at the laboratory.

Sanpareil is already well and favorably known, and many wonderful results are noted. The doctor has recently decided to put on the market here his catarrh cure and blood purifier. It has no equal as a blood remedy. He has also placed on sale his medicine known as Eyereine, which is a sure cure for sore eyes, granulated lids and many forms of impaired vision.

His oxide of zinc ointment, Curene, has no superior for cuts, bruises and skin diseases.

Ask your druggist for any of the Dr. McChesney Medicine Company's goods and they will supply you.

DOES WINANS KNOW ABOUT THE DATES.

QUESTION AS TO THE WATER FRANCHISE.

How Long Was It After He Ceased To Represent the City That He Began To Represent the Company? Do Franchise Provisions Hamper Consumers?

EDITOR GAZETTE:—I have noticed the last two issues of the Recorder discussing the oppression of our water company. As we understand the matter the people did want water works owned by a private corporation, but the experience that they had has shown them their error. Mr. Winans admits that the company is oppressing our people with extortionate rates and outrageous rules and regulations.

Perhaps in his next letter he will inform us whether or not this is done under a contract drawn by the ex-mayor and now attorney for the company. If so, why did he not make the same contract with this present company that was offered to other companies. It would not be out of place perhaps for Mr. Winans to state how long a time elapsed after he drew the contract with the present company before he was consulted by some of its managers or agents, or to state when he was retained first as their attorney in any matter.

It might be well for Mr. Winans to state in the same connection what he thinks of the present contract and whether his advice to purchase the plant is given in behalf of the dear people or as attorney for the water company. As we understand they much desire to sell at their price.

LIE WAS A WILLFUL ONE.

Judge Bennett Hurt in Green County by the A. P. A. Story.

Pat Ward, the Green county man who peddled the story that Judge Bennett was an A. P. A., now says he is satisfied it was untrue. The Monroe Sentinel says: "The A. P. A. story about Judge Bennett did its work in Adams, where every Irish Catholic vote, except one, went for William Smith. Judge Bennett speaks of the Catholic church as that 'great Christian denomination' and, to show how much of an A. P. A. he has been, or is, let us mention the fact that nearly twelve years ago he appointed Francis C. Grant, who is both a Catholic and a democrat, to the office of court reporter, and he has held the position ever since. Mr. Grant was appointed because he had superior qualifications. His religion and politics did not interfere. The time will come ere long when Irish Catholics won't believe implicitly all that the democratic politicians tell them, on the eve of election, about their political opponents and candidates."

A Cry For Help

In the stillness of the night is sufficient to startling. What if no aid be at hand or we know no where the cry comes? This is not the case with that mute appeal made to the resources of medical science, ever ready, ever available by disease on every hand. A prompt means of self help for the malarious, the rheumatic, the dyspeptic, the bilious, and persons troubled with impending kidney complaints, is to be found in Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, an ever-present help in time of trouble for all such hapless individuals. They should not delay a moment in seeking its aid. Experience has shown its wide utility, the recommendation of eminent physicians everywhere sanction its use. Nervous, thin, debilitated invalids gain bodily substance and vigor by a course of this fine invigorant, which is eminently serviceable, also, to the aged and convalescent.

Catarrh AND COLD IN THE HEAD

Gentlemen—I cannot say enough for your Powder. It has cured me of an aggravated attack of catarrh when nothing else could help me. Am delighted with it. I will do anything to speak a good word for the remedy to help others who are suffering.

Gentlemen—Being almost entirely deaf for a number of years past and getting no relief from many so-called cures which I tried, was induced by a friend to try Dr. Birney's Catarrh Powder for my deafness. Have recovered my hearing entirely, so that I can now hear a watch tick plainly, it being held 15 inches from my ear. I look upon it as a positive cure for deafness and have recommended its use to many of my friends and can say I have never heard of a case where it has failed to relieve.

LEGISLATIVE CANDIDATES.

Republicans Make Nominations at a Convention in Lawrenceville, Ill.

LAWRENCEVILLE, Ill., April 13.—Republicans of the forty-fifth senatorial district have nominated H. H. Kingsbury of Richland for state senator, and E. Callahan of Crawford and W. H. Lathrop of Jasper, for representatives.

DANVILLE, Ill., April 13.—The democratic county central committee met here yesterday. The time fixed for the county convention is May 1.

WINCHESTER, Ill., April 13.—The republican central committee has issued a call for the republican county convention to meet here April 30 at 10 a. m.

DIXON, Ill., April 13.—The Lee county democratic central committee has issued a call for the county convention, which will be held at Amboy, Thursday, June 14. Candidates for county offices will then be put in nomination and delegates appointed to the state, congressional and senatorial conventions.

MONMOUTH, Ill., April 13.—The political campaign of 1894 was opened here last night by the dedication of the hall and parlors of the Monmouth Jeffersonian club. The leading speaker was C. K. Ladd of Kewanee.

PANIC IN MAY WHEAT.

Chicago Bulls Stamped Into Throwing Property on the Market.

CHICAGO, April 13.—Wheat bulls were thrown into a panic directly after the board opened yesterday. The near approach of the May delivery day, along with the fact that the storm center is now moving down from western Nebraska into the drouth districts of western Kansas, took away all the courage the bulls had. They tried to sell wheat, but found somebody had been there before them. The bottom of the market for May literally dropped out, and the price went from 62½c to 58½c within a half-hour after the opening bell tapped. July wheat, which was 1½c over May at the close yesterday, was 2½c before the May found a stopping place.

TRIAL COMES AT LAST.

A. A. Cadwallader, Alleged Bank Wrecker, Before a Jury.

MADISON, Wis., April 13.—The long delayed trial of A. A. Cadwallader, ex-president of the Superior First National bank, was begun before Judge Brown in the United States court here yesterday. Cadwallader was arraigned on the six counts selected from the thirty in the last indictment returned against him, and entered a plea of not guilty. The first witness for the prosecution was L. Alvord, the present president of the bank. The time until adjournment was occupied in an examination of books and papers of the bank. Indications are that the trial will last over a week.

Punishing Unruly London Apprentices.

It will be a revelation to many people to learn that the practice of punishing unruly apprentices in the city of London by various terms of imprisonment, without being brought publicly before a police magistrate, is still carried into effect. The power of ordering such punishment is vested in the city chamberlain, and the offenses for which the apprentices are punished are absence coming late of a morning, idleness and insubordination. The lads are confined in the cells of the old prison in New Bridge street, and are not permitted to leave the building on any account during their term of confinement. The only exercise they are allowed is taken on the premises, and consists of walking up and down the corridor for periods of half an hour or twenty minutes before and after the large doors are opened. In the cells the lads are permitted to read, but this is the only recreation allowed. Their diet is the same as in ordinary prisons, and consists of bread, potatoes, skilly, hot coffee and water.—Pall Mall Budget.

Antiquity of Engraving.

Gems were engraved at a very early period of the world's history. The very oldest specimen of this art in existence is believed to be a square signet of yellow jasper, engraved in the year 1450 B. C., and now in the British museum. The engraving upon it is a fair picture of the horse of Amenophis II., and the characters underneath have been deciphered as being the names and titles of that monarch. The earliest instance of an engraved precious stone is the emerald ring of Poly-crates, 740 B. C. The bible tells us that the Judean high priests wore breastplates with the names of the twelve tribes engraved upon them, but this notwithstanding there is no known Hebrew engraving older than the fifth century.
